PART-TIME GBA
(HK-SZ) MBA
The structure of the bi-weekly mode is designed for students to receive a comprehensive and rigorous learning within a 2-day period across alternate weeks. The no-class week will allow students to focus and debrief their learnings from the lectures, meeting with their cohorts for group assignments and most importantly, preparing themselves for the upcoming class week. This study approach will ensure our students receive an optimum learning whilst minimizing travelling.

Programme Structure
You are expected to complete the above courses within a minimum of 2 years (to a maximum of 4 years) in a 2-weeks modular structure, meaning you just have to concentrate on one single course in a given 2-weeks period.

HIGHLIGHTS

Flexibility
Studying at your own pace, you can complete this MBA degree within 24 months whilst continuing your busy work schedule.

Modular Structure
The structure of the bi-weekly mode is designed for students to receive a comprehensive learning within a 2-day period across alternate weeks. The no-class week will allow students to prepare themselves for the upcoming class week. This study approach will ensure our students receive an optimum learning whilst minimizing travelling.

Regional Perspective
Our Asia-Pacific focus will give you a distinct advantage in building your career in the region. The focus on Asia and China business renders the programme highly relevant to the wider region’s dynamic, ever-evolving business environment.

Case-Based Approach
The HKU MBA programme adopts an experiential-learning approach, with the extensive use of business cases that enables students to become effective problem solvers and decision makers. These cases are written by our own professors and are published by our renowned Asia Case Research Centre (https://www.acrc.hkumba.hk).

Networking and Bonding
Networking opportunities are one of the highlights of the programme. Students studying the GBA (HK-SZ) mode will experience networking and bonding opportunities alongside the Hong Kong Part-time mode and alumni when travelling to the city for their courses and workshops. Additionally, HKU MBA colleagues who are stationed at the Shenzhen Centre will also organise events regularly for students based in the Greater Bay Area to mingle with students from other Masters programmes and alumni under the business school.

The Entrepreneurship and Innovation Centre
The Entrepreneurship and Innovation Centre spans an estimated 3000 square meters, providing HKU students, alumni, and affiliated partners with resource support and a space for innovation. It also establishes a platform for interactive communication and self-improvement for talent in the Greater Bay Area. The affiliated partners include: China Resources Bank, Bank of China, China Construction Bank, Qianhai Financial Holdings, DJ, BYD Company, Tencent, Huawei and etc.

Entreprenuerial Incubation Lab
HKU MBA partners with Cyberport Academy, part of Hong Kong’s largest start-up incubation hub to conduct the Entrepreneurial Incubation Lab course. The course aims to build up entrepreneurial mentality that leverage on the training, cultivate the capabilities of start-up founders to identify the market opportunities, and to engage in practical workshops to develop investor decks and present start-up pitch.

International Field Project
In the past few years, we have organised numerous international field trips to Asia, Europe and the US. International field project is an elective which helps our students understand business dynamics in different economies by visiting companies and institutions, and also speak with CEOs and top management of the visited companies.

Diverse and Contemporary Elective Selection
Your MBA electives are often taught by industry practitioners to bring in real-world experience and experienced professors to solidify your management framework. Our elective courses include: Artificial Intelligence for Business Leaders, Insights & Lessons: Reflections of a CEO, Online Business Strategy, Marketing for Tech-Intensive Industries, Introduction to FinTech & Its Impact on the Future of Finance and Banking, International Field Project and so on.

The London & New York Connection
There is a possibility for you to spend a semester at London Business School or Columbia Business School which offer great environments for business education along with international exposure.

Alumni Lifelong Learning
In order to equip our alumni with new knowledge and further strengthen their MBA networks, HKU Business School offers their alumni the chance to enrol in one elective per academic year to continuously enhance their knowledge and stay connected to the business school. No course enrollment fee will be charged.

Jinshan Hong
"Taking the part-time MBA is intense, challenging, but it is also very rewarding. I discovered from time to time that my work fuelled my curiosity for further learning and my studies unlocked greater possibilities in my work."

Adam Wang
"Life is short so it's better to decide right away rather than overthinking the matter. If you want to have the international business visibilities and mindset to know more about the Asia markets then HKU MBA is the right choice."

Kaifeng Huang
"My thinking is that you shouldn't use the MBA as only a stepping stone or just as a tool for advancement because you will be amazed by the amount of exposure you get from unexpected places."

Jolly Gong
"We have core courses to provide me basic knowledge that helped me to better understand the prospectus and research reports in my daily work."

Celine Zhu
"I decided to complete my MBA journey on a part-time basis as I relocated to Hong Kong for work. I think it's a perfect opportunity for me to apply what I learned from class to my work immediately. I also appreciate the flexible schedules and options offered by the programme and I'm able to maintain the balance between career enhancement and academic growth."

Max Sun
"Timing is the key to everything. Keeping abreast of current affairs and staying alert to the changes around you is essential."
